its don't fool with lovers much : and throttle valves don't take to such : And as for Jim -What happened to him was one-half fact and t'other half whim ! Running one night on the line, he saw

A house—as plain as the moral law— last by the moonlight bank, and thence Came a drunken man with no more sense Than to drop on the rail, Flat as a fiail, As Jim drove by with the midnight mail.

nown went the patents. Steam reversed. late! for there came a 'thud' Jim cursed As his fireman, there in the cab wih him, Kinder stared in the face of Jim. And says, 'What now ?' Says Jim, 'What now !

e just run over a man-that's how !" man stared at Jim. They ran not they never found house nor a shadow within a mile, hed pale, but he tried to smile hen on he tore, the miles or more, cer time than he'd made store.

Would you believe it !- the very next night p rose that house in the moonlight white t comes the chap and drops as before, Down goes the brakes, and the rest encore-And so, in fact, Each night that act ccurred, 'till folks swore Jim was cracked

Let me see; it's a year now, most, That I met Jim, East, and says, 'How's your Gone, says Jim; 'and more, it's plain That ghost don't trouble me again ; I thought I shook That ghost when I took place on an Eastern line-but look : What should I meet the fiast trip out, But that very house that we talked about And that self-same man; 'Well says I,

It's time to stop this yer foolishness." So I crammed on steam When there came a scream om my fireman—and it broke my dream-You've killed somebody!' Says I, Not se been thar often and thar aint no such,

And now I'll prove it.' Back we ran, And-darn my skin !- but thar was a man On the rall, dead, Smushed in the headv I call that meanness!' That's all Jim

ON THE BRINK. A TEMPERANCE SKETCH.

I have known Arthur Gravely well and intimately. A part of his story that. came to my knowledge thro' my own derlain, and very soon took a position ty, and thus he held fast upon his work. of trust and responsibility in the health as it came back to him. single and devoted. Thus was life cepted. friends whichever way he turned; concluded, and he sat out on his re successful and useful life.

ly paradise. One enemy, and one enemy alone, His wife did not see it then. She and pearly again. loved him so fondly and so trustingly that she could not see a fault. A few of Arthur's friends feared

-from twenty-two to twenty-eight. Six years of married life-six years Arthur had assumed a place very near should be there. to the head, and his salary was muni-

From early youth Arthur Gravely you back !" had come an undue flush upon Ar- his plate. es in the eye which ought not to have smiling. "If you want it hereafter been there. He now took brandy be- for a medicine, keep it. For myself I to carefully explain his or her work, fore breakfast, and through the day shall not want it." he was forced to supply fuel to feed a fire which else might have consumed all bodily comfort. As yet he had never been helplessly intoxicated. He ness that was strong and reliant. was confident in his own strength.

Alas! for the man thus falling! He | the great warmth of her heart-saw it fades and perishes!

told him that he was going to sus- trust her own senses, "is it true?-Du cess of culture is concerned.

Vanderlain, "and I know that my me strength and reason.

"And of closing up your business?" "Yes." "But, sir, there is no need of that. on its course, she covered her face

If you will trust your bank under the sank down weeping like a child. guidance of some capable and respon- Arthur was by her side in a mo- ill prepares one for the quite ordinary them. sible agent, with your name at its ment. head, it might go prosperously on, and you could go away upon your trip at will."

A cloud came upon the banker's face, and he shook his Lead. "It is too late," he said. "At some time I may tell you more."

Chrasia.

MURCIBRU,

ESTABLISHED 1856.

BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1874.

A DAM CONUNDRUM.

continental dam."

ceived credit for the genuine.

The counterfeit was stamped 'Dam,'

an abbreviation of the latin damna-

NEBRASKA HOMESTEADS.

the U. S. Land offices from home-

NORTH OF PLATTE.

SOUTH OF PLATTE.

in settlement.-State Journal.

SENATOR HITCHCOCK'S BILL.

ted States.

in this State :

West Point District.

Dakota City District

Beatrice District...

Lowell District.

Grand Island District.

From the annual report of the Reg-

VOL. 18.-NO. 36

The Bible mentions several races of "Dear child, you may rejoice with- is done. He is eighteen, a cripple, years, while we have been struggling ped running for four miles. [Ap giants, as the Rephaims, the Anaout fear. If Arthur has pledged his and will live in clover to the end of for eight years with twice as much. plause on the floor and in the galler- kims, the Emins the Zonzonius, and others. Profave historians also great size and speed completes the farmers arises as much from the small It became my painful duty, sir, to mention giants; they gave seven feet farm system and the high cultivation follow in the track of that charging of beight to Hercules, their first hero, they give to soil. There is a vast dif- column, and there, in a space not wi- and in our days we have seen men ference in farming in a loose way and der than the Clerk's desk, and three eight feet high. The giant who was A Massachusetts paper explains that having all work done in the best man- hundred yards long, lay the dead bod- shown in Rouen in 1735 measured ies of five hundred and forty-three of eight fee some inches. The Empermy colored soldiers, slain in defence or Maximin was of that size; Skenfor their country, and who had laid kius and Platerus, physicians of the down their lives to uphold the flag last century, saw several of that statand its honor as a willing sacrifice; ure; and Goropius saw a girl who was and as I rode along among them, ten feet high. guiding my horse this way and that The body of Orestes, according to way lest he should profane with his the Greeks, was eleven feet and a hoofs what seemed to me the sacred half; the giant Galbara, brought from dead, and as I looked at their bronzed | Arabia to Rome under Claudius Casfaces upturned in the shining sun ar, was near ten feet; and the bones to Heaven as if in mute appeal against of Secondilla and Puflo, keepers of the wrongs of that country for which the gardens of Sallust, were but six they have given their lives, and inches shorter.

race forever;" and, God helping me, to the Peak of Teneriffe, says that man, says "English hay and Indian I will keep that oath. [Great ap they found in one of the sepulchral meal are the feed for cows that make plause on the floor and in the galler- caverns of that mountain the head of a Gannche, which had eighty teeth. and the body was not less than fifteen PROPAGATION OF TUBERCLE BY feet long.

At the last meeting of the French do, nephew of Charlemagne, was Association for the Advancement of eighteen feet high.

Dr. Klebs, in Germany, which he has nineteen feet high. recorded in one of the Archiv fur Ex- Valence in Dauphine boasts of pospertm. Pathologic (Heft II. 1873.) sessing the bones of the giant Bucart, declination. Dr. Klebs asserts that the milk of tyrant of the Vivarais, who was slain tubercular co . s brings on tuberculos- by an arrow by the Count de Cabillon. is in various animals. The infection his vassal. The Dominicans had a generally commences with intestinal part of the shin-bone, with the artic- Saturday last, and wandering into catarrh followed by tuberculization of ulation of the knee, and his figure one of the private rooms, took a the mesentric ganglia, the liver and painted in frised, with an inscription draught from a bottle which he spleen, and ending in extensive mili- showing that this giant was twentyary tuberculosis of the thoracie or- two and a half feet high, and that his gans. Infection by means of the milk bones were found in 1705, near the to be poison. He died, may be without result in vigorous or- banks of the Morderi, a little river at Now, sir, you will allow me to state ganisms; and the author has even the foot of the mountain of Crussol, thirty feet long was found in the year homestead entry, these figures repre- strong work guarding their left flank in London this year; and now have 1548, and another of thirty-three feet sent merely the cost of survey, or at New Market Heights; and there we not to lay to the same fluid the high in 1550; and many curious per-

time, he "got his back up" and flatly long pounds of corn.

man bones, the existence of giants is proved - Harper's Weekly. MEDICINAL USE OF NETTLES -Dr. Nichoil says that the greatest preven herry's pasture after his black sheep tive of yellow fever in Bermuda is only tryin' skeer ye." But the stern dried nettle, powdered and used as a ing over that way."-That boy got a condiment in all cooking. The Doc- licking before breakfast next morntor resides on the Isle Jersey, and he ing. uses it successfully among his patients. He preserves it like herb teas, and 'Vigor of Life," and his stomach keeps in a dry place. Dr. Thornton uses it as a stypic. He dips lint into nettle juice and inserts it into a bleed ing nose, with quick effect. He also fulls of castor oil, a teaspoonful of prescribes it for goiter, for which it is grinds fifteen of the seeds, and admin- time." you want to behold the maddest boy isters once a day. The juice of the in Michigan, just say "fly poison" to nettle has a singular effect on steel. which becomes flexible by immersion

Ben Weightman, the cripple, who Some of our exchanges are descant- there another line of the abatis. The the wood-work, but the sun's rays for a year or more has been traversing which occurred at birth. Until within the past two weeks, his knees were shrew. The Duke of Buckingham whose flag had only been to them a Fuunam, a Scotchman, who lived flag of stripes on which no star of glo-ry had ever shone for them-feeling I King of Scotland, measured eleven ad wronged them in the past, and feet and a half; and Jacob le Maire, believing what was in the future of In his voyage to the Strahs of Magelmy country to them-among my dead lan, reports that on the 17th of De- true." comrades there I swore to myself a cember, 1615, they found at Port Desolemn oath, "May my right hand sire several graves covered with forget its cunning and my tongue stones; and having the curiosity to cleve to the roof of my mouth, if I remove the stones, they discovered week 5.484 were men and 1,388 were ever fail to defend the rights of these human skeletons of ten and eleven women. men who have given their blood for feet long.

GIANTS.

me and my country this day and their The Chevalier Scory, in his voyage

The giant Ferragus, slain by Orlan-

Science, M Chauveau gave to the Rioland, a celebrated anatomist, section what he termed a demonstra- who wrote in 1614, says that, some tion of the transmission of tuberculos- years before, there was to be seen in is by the digestive organs. He observ- the suburbs of St. Germain, the tomb ed that his numerous observations en- of the giant Isoret, who was twenty of their net earnings.

abled him to state that if the healthy young of animals susceptible of tub- In Rouen, in 1509, in digging in the erculosis were fed with food with ditches near the Dominicans, they cut down the cost of stationery from which the matter of tubercle was found a stone tomb containing a skel- $4,000 to $500, and refused to approprimixed, they would all exhibit tuber- eton, whose skull held a bushel of ate any money for postage stamps. culosis in various organs. In antici- corn, and whose shin-bone reached pation of this meeting, he had pur- up to the girdle of the tallest man There are milk baths in New York chased some healthy calves; and, there, being about four feet long, and City which are patronized largely by having them fed as described, on consequently the body must have ladies who pay $5 per bath in milk slaughtering them the sixtieth day been seventeen or eighteen feet high after the first ingestion, the lymphat- Upon the tomb was a plate of copper. ic system was found extensively tub. whereupon was engraved, "In this of improving their health and beautierculized, while caseous deposits ex- tomb lies the noble and puissant lord, fying their complexion. isted in the lungs. This thesis he the Chevalier Ricon de Vallemont, demonstrates most conclusively, and and his bones." Platerus, a famous he is thus supported in his inferences physician, declares that he saw at Lu- telegraphed to Professor Henry, at by en apparently wholly independent cerne the true human bones of a sub- Washington, that he had discovered series of experiments carried on by ject which must have been at least ing, we believe, all withdrawn from line of works, one in the centre of . The propagation of typhoid faver by ara, in Sidily, a skeleton of a giant feet high.

At Totu, in Bohemia, in 758, was found a skeleton, the head of which arms of two men tegether, and whose

The celebrated Sir Hans Sloane, who treated this matter very learnedly, does not doubt these facts, but thinks the bones were those of elephants, whales, or other enormous animals.

Legaladvertisements at legal rates: One souare (10 line of Nonparell space, or less,) first insertion $1.00: each subsequent insertion 50e

1 w m | 1m 6m 12m

All transcient advertisements must be paid

THE ADVERTISER

ADVERTISING RATES.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY.

VARIETIES.

A New Hampshire black Spanish fighting cock has been sold for 2,000. It is proposed to cultivate figs for

The Vermont Agricultural Society proscribes "pool selling" on its Fair Does not a young mother's lieart fattening hogs in Southern California.

leap 4th with joy when she beholds her darling babe's 1st 2th ?"

Oysters weighing three pounds, and ten inches long, have been found at Point Pinalis, near Tampa, Florida. The suffrage women of Maine are very patient and reasonable. They don't ask to handle the ballot before A singular instance of skepticism is recorded in the case of a man who said the Bible was "too good to be Of 6,872 persons lodged in the star tion-houses of New York City last Mrs. J. T., in Massachusetts Plough-

In Carthage Ill., boys under the age of 16 are by a city ordinance recently passed, prohibited from chewing tobacco. The Wisconsin Assembly has passed the bill fixing the rate of taxation on railways in that State at 5 per cent.

The new Minnes to Legislature has that is warranted pure, for the sake Dr. Peters, of Hamilton College, a planet in 11 hours, 19 minutes right ascension, plus 4 degrees, 25 minutes

John Magar attended a ball at the Willard House, Hyde Park, Mass., thought contained liquor, but proved

BAKED HAM .- If the harri has been opening for Arthur Gravel, with On the fifth day the business which nize that the true purpose of educa- ing $146,625.39. The largest receipts how I got over my prejudices. I seen full formed tubercles resorb and upon which, tradition says, the giant long hung put it on in cold water and let it come to a boil, when this water Wichita District, $38,653.39, the sec- the exhibition we had yesterday. I likely, adds Dr Klebs, that the tuber- January 11, 1613, some masons dig- should be turned off After trimming think no man will get up here and cular virus is contained in varying ging near the ruins of a castle in Dau- from the under side all rusty and very best; and his home was an earth. His nerves had become steady; his inclines the young too largely to the Nebraska follows closely upon heels say he speaks only to white men proportions in the milk of cows which phine, in a field which by tradition smoked parts return to the kettle with appetite had started up as if by magic; oretical, professional and ornamental of Kansas with a return of $109,154.16 again. He must at first show himself are more or less diseased, and the had long been called the Giant's field, sufficient water to cover it. Bring it his cheeks had grown fair; and the pursuits, and awakens contempt for of which the Lincoln District gave worthy before he can speak to some scrofulosis may occur, in children at the depth of eighteen feet discover- gradually to boil and as the scum rises at this time stood in Arthur's path. white of his eye was growing clear the necessary and worthy achieve $40,316.20. doing for that year the large colored men in the house, after what born without tubercle, through the ed a brick tomb thirty feet long, carefully remove it. Keep it simmerments of manual labor and mechani- est "land office business" in the Uni- occurred yesterday. [Applause.] milk of an unhealthy mother or wet twelve feet wide, and eight feet high ing gently until tender, being careful I came into command in Virginia nurse. In conclusion the author ex- on which was a gray stone, with the that it does not stop boiling nor boil ning, and went first to the bank and Third. That industrial habits must The following shows the comparation 1863 I three organized twenty-five presses the view that the virus is con- words Theutobochus Rex cut thereon. too quickly. A has weighing fifteen gave in a return of his business. Mr. be formed early in life to be effective tive business of the eight land offices regiments with some that were sent tained in the scrum of milk, in a dis- When the tomb was opened they pounds will require about five hours. to me, and disciplined them. Still all solved state, and that it is not destroy- found a human skeleton entire-twen- When done let it remain in the hot my brother officers of the regular ar- ed by boiling, which is ordinarily suf- ty-five feet and a half long, ten feet water until nearly cold; this will rewide across the shoulders, and five tain the juices. After removing the 18,792.28 fight; and I felt it was necessary that If these facts are not overstated, and feet deep from the breast-bone to the skin stick whole cloves in the fat they should fight to show that their they do not seem to be so, what a dan- back. His teeth were about the size about an inch apart each way, and race was capable of the duties of citi- gerous article must be that which is each of an ox's foot, and the shin- sprinkle the suface with powdered erackers. Bake the ham in a modercitizens is to defend their liberties and daily, in all large cities, the product | Near Mezarino, in Sicily, in 1516, ately hot oven for from one-half to $12,819.17 their country's flag and honor. On of phthisical cows, fed on distillery was found a giant thirty feet high; three-quarters of an hour. When 40,316.26 the 29th of September, 1864. I was or- slops, and choked with foul odors! his head was the size of a hogshead, taken from the oven place a frill of dered by the commanding general of The milk of one tuberculous cow will and each of his teeth weighed five paper around the knuckle; and garnish the dish with fresh or fried pars-

DIRECTIONS FOR SMOKING HAMS .-Make a small building of boards, nailhad used it upon his side-board and up The Athenians found near their only one opening at the top, and one city two famous skeletons, one of thir- in the middle of the floor. Set it ty four and the other of thirty-six up so high that a small stove can be set under it, with the smoke-pipe entering the floor. Change the position of the hams once or twice, that all are could scarce be encompassed by the treated alike. When this cannot be done use an inverted barrel or hogspresent a still more flattering record. side of the James river. That work heart on going a-fishing at the very the of that city, were twenty-six feet the smoke to escape resting on stones, and keep a small moldering fire. Cobs. are best, as giving a better flavor, and brands or chips of walnut wood are next best. Keeping a small fire a longer time is better than quick smoking as too much heat gives the hams a strong taste, and they are less sweet.

Colorado papers continue to combuffaloes. The meat sells in Greely teams. The Utes and Sioux are also mixing in, and they get boiling mad when they find a hunter killing for sport. One hunter had fifty robes transportation, and while off hunting for more, the Sloux came up and burnt most of them.

"Abraham, my pet, where is your father?" "Don't know, mother, but guess he's gone over to Deacon Hill-'kase I seen the Widder Higgins go-

Two Irishmen were in prison-one for stealing a cow, the other for stealing a watch. "Hullo, Mike, and sure" what o'clock is it?" said the cow stealer. "An' sure," said the watch stealer, "I've no time-piece handy, but I suppose it's jist about milking

Talking about upsetting sleighs. Wicks remarked to a young lady he was taking out to drive. "I always pick out the softest place I can when I upset my sleigh." She replied, Why. I should think it would grow monotonous, always falling on your

Poor Milton when blind, married a

The umpire of the Chicago Times Chang and Eng was a "tie," stroyer so deeply fixed upon the companions of his boyhood. "Boys," said he, "this won't do. You are going down."

They regarded him curiously, and asked him what he meant. He told them what he meant. They Don't preach, Arthur. Try a bit of might be a long, long time before he ty it is commonly made of bread or past flash before the mind as upon a and self-satisfied.

was the present one to Arthur Grave- gramme."

"Let it alone he said solemnly. "I away?" tell you, Jack, and you, Will, that "Yes-I shall go to Europe, but I better try to let it alone yourself?" he asked. "Will you try it?" demanded Hut- employ."

"If you will join me." "DONE!"

they would be steadfast. hands shook as though with palsy. prosper. What say you ?" He applied to a physician for help. Fortunately he applied to a man of s nse and understanding.

frankly stated his case. gerous state you had fallen. I can and he could no more help it than he nerves, but it would not help you in peace and blessedness that flowed in the end. If you will be brave and upon his heart. true you will come out all right in a observation, and a part he told me may have been a blessed thing for Ar- went away, and if possible, to get you must have been a condemned poor thur Gravely that it was so. He felt a good place But it is all done now. thing.—Cor. Mo. Republican. Arthur came of an old, well-defined more heroism in the conquest, and he God bless and keep you." and respectable stock, with just also saw more clearly how deeply the And now, looking back. Arthur enough of aristocratic pride inherited evil habit had become fixed upon Gravely sees how near upon the fearfrom his progenitors to give him re- him. On the morning of the fourth ful brink he stood. From his postfinement and self-reliance. At an day of his trial he awoke with an ap- tion of wealth and honor and love, he ister of the Treasury for the fiscal year No other pairs are left to try early age he was left an orpha: , and petite for food, and was able to eat a can see the dark pit from which he ending June 30th, 1873, which has And now the winter snows are spread. received most of his education under hearty breakfast. He was a new man escaped, and he sees hundreds upon been laid before the present Congress. the care of an uncle. When he was from that time fourth. The physi- hundreds sinking into it yearly. He we glean interesting details showing May Hymen bless us when we're wed, one-and-twenty he was addmitted to cian had given him certain hygienic helps the fallen ones when he can, the comparative settlement of the the employ of a banker named Van- directions which he followed implici- and finds unfailing satisfaction in the west.

house. A year later he took for his And on the fourth day Arthur saw wife Fanny Summerton-one of the Hatton and Roberts. They had kept fairest and sweetest of earthly treas- the faith, and had been unexpectedly To the Honorable Members of the Fifteenth furnished nearly one-half or $255,777.ures. He had loved her long and prospered. An excellent opening in truly, and her love in retun had been business had been presented and ac-

his business prospects were of the turn. And the struggle had passed. He reached his own city in the morn | cal skill.

danger, and one of them, more bold Vanderlain had glanced quickly and and permanent. that the rest, spoke to him warning- eagerly into his face when he first en- Fourth. That the lack of industrial ly, but kindly; but he turned away tered, and a wondrous change came training results in speculation, consefrom the warning with a sneer of upon the banker's manner as the bus- quent defaulting and widespread disipess proceeded. Something outside honesty. The months and the years went on the business in hand was evidently I, therefore, most earnestly entreat on his mind.

"Fanny!" had found the wine cup among the Something made the wife even hapsymbols of life's social phase. He pier than she had thought as she of useful articles made by the pupils, had kept wine in his own house; he rested within her husbands embrace; -such as sewing of all kinds, knithad used it upon his side-board and but in the sudden joy she could not ting, erocheting, mending of all kinds. of the day of the day thur's cheek, and there were blotch- "Take it away, Fanny," he said, may be invented by the children.

"Not want it ?-Arthur?" "I have done with it forever!" He spoke solemnly, with a manli-close application tobusiness is wearing Fanny was upon the opposite side upon me. I am growing in years, and of the table. She tried to speak, but heed rest. I think of going to Eu- he voice failed her. She turned wh te -then she pressed her hand for an instant upon her heart-and then, as the crimson flood once more bounded

"Fanny !- My wife-What is it?" She looked up, and caught his startl- stable of Buchanan's time is now bill introduced by Senator Hitchcock ed gaze through her tears. With a partly a conservatory and partly a will be carried through, giving the of intense anxiety, but they formed

I could die for joy if I did not feel a low, brick edifice, somewhat castelkeep the faith !" Most of the afternoon Arthur spent horse outfit of Gen. Grant. "You forget, old boy," said Hatton, in the private office waiting for the "that you are in the same boat If banker a feeling of sadness and rewe took passage before you, it is no gret came upon him. It would be less sure that our route is the same, hard to leave the old place, and it

There are moments in a lifetime- It was toward evening when Mr. great crises-when the events of the Vanderlain came in, looking flushed magic mirror-when a man, in a brief "I have kept you waiting, Arthur, instant, recalls every salient point of but I have been busy. I have made a his earthly career. Such a moment most important change in my pro-"Ah? And you are not going you are going down. You can't last shall not give up my banking busi-much longer at this rate." ness. I have found a new man—one "Well," reterted Roberts, with an safe reliable, and competent—who, I attempt to laugh, "It appears to me whink, will take my business while I that what is sauce for the goose is am absent." sauce for the gander. Hadn't 'you "Mr. Vanderlain," cried the young man' frankly, "I am glad of this, for "If I will try it, will you try it?" I know I shall be able to persuade you to let me keep my place in your The banker shook his head.

Arthur trembled, and started to speak. And they did it. They joined "Tut, tut -not your present place, hands and promised one another that Arthur. Know that you are my new man. If you will take charge of my A new surprise was in store for Ar- business, I shall not let it go from me; thur Gravely. He found upon cut- and I shall leave it in your hands. ting off his spirituous liquors that his knowing that both it and you will

"Mr. Vanderlain!" "Ah! my boy, I have seen your wife. I found her crying for joy vest. The rascally Britishers still "Can you give me something to And when she told me whence her more depreciated the currency, by in- The wintry winds the homeward way, troducing very good counterfelts of it. Blew chilly in our faces, But underneath our fars we lay steady my nerves and restore my ap- joy came, I knew there was joy for petite?" Arthur asked, after he had me also. To the new man I gave my Now our revolutionary fathers desirentire confidence, and in his hands I ed after the war was over, to pay their One girl upon the forward seat-"That shows you, my dear sir," fear not to trust my name and honor." said the physician, "into what a dan- It was Arthur's turn now to weep; gress, those who held the currency And Billy Frost, etc. were required to return it to the treasgive you something to steady your could have helped the great flood of

"My dear boy," said the banker, afew days."

Arthur said he should not go back.

terwards, "I did not speak to you in tus, (condemned). As the currency the other times as perhaps I ought. I itself was worth but little a thing. Her innocence to show forth, but little a thing. Arthur said he should not go back. the other times as perhaps I ought. I litself was worth but little, a thing the wanted no stimulent—no more of know how you treated others who that was "not worth a continental" did speak, and I forebore. I had in-The trial was a severe one, and it tended to speak, however, before I "not worth a continental dam" it sweet lips, from their abundant store, "not worth a continental dam" it sweet lips, from their abundant store,

MATILDA FLETCHER'S MEMORIAL steads and pre-emptions are $580,489. TO THE IOWA LEGISLATURE.

In common with thoughtful and Kansas stands first on the list, the patriotic people of all parties, I recog- receipts from her eight land offices bebright and happy promise. He had had brought Gravely from home was tion is to train the individual for a from a Kansas office are from the think the House got over theirs after disappear through cicatrization. It is dwelt. Second. That mental training alone ond largest reported in the list.

your honorable body to enact a law Arthur did not reach his home un- providing that it shall be the duty of of blessing so far as the outer things til time for dinner; but he had sent a the Superintendent of Public Instrucof life can give blessing. In the bank boy from the bank with word that he tion, his subordinates and other school officers, to introduce and sustain an industrial exposition in con-

"Darling! O, I'm so glad to see nection with each ward and district school in the Stata. That these expositions shall consist known to the industrial world, or that That each pupil shall be encouraged under the supervision of the teacher, in the presence of the parents and friends. That ornamental work shall be allowed when accompanied by some-And the wife saw whence had come thing useful made by the same pupil. That the pupils shall be encouraged knows not that his powers of under- in the pure cheek, and in the clear to bring flowers, fruits, garden and standing are dying out as the body eye, as she had caught it in the sweet farm products in their season, that have been cultivated by themselves, At length, Mr. Vanderlain called ',Arthur-my husband," she whis- and shall be expected to explain them Arthur into his private closet, and pered, as though hardly daring to so far as regards kind, use, and pro-

Respectfully,

MATILBA FLETCHER.

GEN. GRANT'S TURNOUT. stud Gen. Grant keeps for his own | There is no fear of Indians in most quick movement she threw her arms woodshed. Nearly a quarter of a mile around his neck, and pillowed her away, on the new and yet uncultivaad upon his bosom.

Ited part of the public grounds out borders of the State as was the intenof the column reached the first line He was forced to take a dose of pain ble. A coach of modern style, trim- made. With this increase of the range a small black mare of marvelous excess. Yet they were gentleman, carry a budget to a neighbor and when the spent a left alone. Fanny sat down and cried the spent a left alone. The spent a left alone the spent alo first and second night in their com- gain for joy. And so Mr. Vander- hands high. He was picked up in a erations. One farmer, who stopped abatis risits and holds, the head of in which it runs, as the part remain- surgeon from abroad and hids fair to head." no attention. He cost but $400. He ago, records it as his experience that away under the shot and shell, the it wears unequally. price. A fine sum would be paid for bought before and sell more. The but a brave black hand seizes the colble is Cincinnatus, the old war horse proved by the fact that the German them away, and the column forward, bring up will consume over three conductor punches holes in your tick- decides that the game of life with a deal of thought he slowly said, with deep mahogany bay, slender and of dollars which they were obliged to my ear, they went over that redoubt his hand npon Fanny's fair head— wonderful symmetry. His life work pay has been all discharged in two like a flash, and the enemy never stop honor to this new life, be sure he will his days. A four year old colt of Perhaps the wealth of the French ies.]

FARMERS IN DEBT.

'a tinker's dam" is proper and chaste ner. THE SLEIGH RIDE. some other harmless substance around | Sweet Susie Brown, my pretty one ! the hole to be mended. The melted I'm sure you must remember-If not for love, at least for funsolder is poured into it to be confined The sleigh ride in D-cember, When all the belles and all the beaux, until it cools on Of course the bread is burned and spoiled, and utterly In spite of frosts, would go forth, worthless after it has served this pur-And squeese beneath the buffaloes, Each other's hands, &c.

pose. 'Not worth a tinker's dam' is therefore very innocent. Now a Cin- How brightly streamed the northern lights wants somebody to tell him of the origin and meaning of the phrase "con-tinental dam," which is considerably used by the patriotical descendants of revolutionary soldiers. Suppose the used by the patrictical descendants of revolutionary soldiers. Suppose the revolutionary soldiers were our "revolutionary soldiers w blutionary sires, ""continental dam" Of all most mad devices, Love's fire should burn so bright and cle ought to be regarded as a correct phrase of our mother tongue. If that's not it; give it up.

Entrop Republicant. Them. EDITOR REPUBLICAN: I have seen Hid under furs, &c. no answer to your "Dam Conun-I'm sure you mind the village inn, drum" in the daily of the 12th. You may tell the Cincinnati editor that How in the general stir and din, nothing could be more "innocent" or Love shot his arrows level; classic than the phrase "not worth a And don't forget how Henry Kidd classic than the phrase "not worth a Embraced you in the buttery; You kissed his lips—you know you did— And he kissed yours, etc. All are aware that the continental currency in the good old days of '76 And when the forfeits were all paid, became very much depreciated, and How one old maid resisted the patriotic citizen often "carried his Until the younger ladies said currency to market in a basket, and "A prude they all detested, "Desist!" she cried—the ancient Annvest pocket," if fortunately he had a "I'll never yield to any man My virgin lips," &c.

honest debts; hence, by act of Con- Declared Jack Frost had pinched her feet, ury where it was sorted, and they re: Another underneath her robes, (The buffaloes, not her dresses Fair patience, with attendant Job, Detected in caresse prang up with angry, flashing face,

All snugly in our places;

And then the parting at the door! The parting word—the long embrace— Cupid's most dangerous witchery, ought fire to many a boyish face,

Dear Sasie Brown, save you and I,

Of all that load of merriment

Our mutual hopes shall glow forth-Increase our joys, &c. The whole amount of receipts from HOW BUTLER GOT OVER HIS PRE-32, of which Nebraska and Kansas Thrilling Description of the Charge at New Market Heights. From Butler's Speech on Civil Rights Bill, in Con-gressional Record, Jan. 8th.

$ 5.513.10 my said my colored soldiers would not ficient. $31,908.52 zens; for one of the highest duties of measured out in thousands of gallons bone measured four feet. $77,245.54 the armies to cross the James river at contaminate that of the whole dairy ounces. The public lands of Nebraska be- two points, and attack the enemy's wen mixed in the cans, the market, that is, subject only to their line. Fort Harrison, the other a milk has been only too cle rly shown was wine, and only wine of the best Arthur's kiss came, sweet and pure, bracket, to a bureau or a house in minlature, iron work of all kinds, from a as a great part of the lands taken up the white troops, the eighteenth corps. were required to keep up the tone. As they entered the dining-room horse shoe to a steam engine in min-At the age of eight-and-twenty, there Arthur saw the decanter of wine near lature. All other useful articles opening of about 15,000 farms in Ne- colored troops to attack the enemy at braska from July 1, 1872, to June 30. New Market Heights, which was the lourteen years, to take a turn at the 1873. The present year will doubtless key to the enemy's flank on the north churn. Now, as Samuel had set his twenty-five thousand additional farms | hill of some considerable elevation; | refused to agitate the cream. The will be opened by the end of June then running down into a marsh; then curvature was promptly taken out of Macedonia, September, 1691, held 210 next. We have little doubt, also, that in that marsh there was a brook; then his spine by a slipper and, with tears the next report of the Register of the rising again to a plain which gently in his eyes, he went on duty with the Treasury will put Nebraska in the rolled away toward the river. On dasher. In about half an hour, and front rank of the new States and Ter- that plain, when the flash of dawn ritories in the rate of progress made was breaking. I plac d a column of three thousand colored troops, in close column by division, right in front, with guns at "right shoulder shift." I said : "That work must be taken Senator Hitchcock has introdued a by the weight of your column; no Arthur into his private closet, and old him that he was going to sustend business.

That these expositions shall be held upon a school day, in the school room, and of our State. This has been done after from the nipples of their guns. Then whole as often as once a month, and not of the from the nipples of their guns. Then whole from the nipples of their guns. Then the sexpositions shall be held in the war department to the authorities of our State. This has been done after full consultation with Governor the largest giants, have neithed for the largest giants. ter full consultation with Governor I said, "Your cry, when you charge Did she shrick for a doctor and fall Furnas and Congressman Crounse, will be, remember Fort Pillow;" and into hysterics? Not much. She simpand with a full knowledge of the sit- as the sun rose up in the Heavens the ly took Samuel by the nape of the uation. If not needed now they will order was given, "Forward," and neck, lifted him defuly into the panbe of great benefit in assuring the they marched forward steadily as if try, beat the whites of six eggs to-[Washington Corresp'dence Boston Journal.] men on the outposts that should occa-on parade—went down the hill, across gether, and told him to engulf the The fuss the papers make over the sion require the strong arm of the the marsh, and as they got into the same instanter; he refusing, she cal carriages and outfits of the President, State will be put forth to protect brook they ame within range of the led the hired girl, and in a twinkuse and that of his family. The old of our settlements, but we hope the they forded the brook, and the colted part of the public grounds—out. dians to the vast country beyond the under the enemy's fire, until the head Samuel had to swallow the mustard.

Then the ax men ran to the front with the "Oil of Gladness." Then during the brief absence of his mother, his eyes fell upon a plate of fly poison, and a bright, smart thought struck him. Just before Mrs. B. came in Sam lifted the fatal platter to his face, and as she entered he put the enemy's fire, which vigorously open- ling Sam found himself outside the ed upon them. They broke a little as umn wavered. O, it was a moment again as they reached the firm grou- d marched steadily on with closed ranks mother was not to be softened, and to cut away the heavy obstructions of he vomited up every-thing but his defense, while one thousand of the boots and socks. This being over, he called upon the correspondents of the wife had suffered without daring to but "U. S. G." on the panels, is the will be of great importance. We are with the tribes enemy, with their artillery concentrabank and having made preliminary complain—how the worm had gnaw- state and family carriage of the Chief will be of great importance. We only ted, from the redoubt poured a heavy fire upon the head of the column Not many words were spoken. turn it into a first-class mourning car- for his promptness in making this just murderous fire; other strong hands his was not the time for such a heart riage. A small, light driving wagon demand upon the Government.— grasp the axes in their stead, and the abatis was cut away. Again, at double quick, the column goes forward within fifty yards of the fort, to meer to the weather, as it not only injures

FLY POISON.

who lives over in Berrien Co. Michigan, directed her son Samuel, a lad of albumen. Then Mrs. B. began preparing a mustard emetic. Seeing this

Sam's pluck dissolved, and he commenced begging, and crying, "I was salts and a blue pill. And now, if

Some time ago, a Mrs. Buckelby,

Sam Buckelby. A grindstone should not be exposed

Near Palermo, in the valley of Maz- ley leaves.

Elephants' bones may be shown for er arms nor legs; and the head of that animal has not the least resemblance to that of a man. If it be true therefore, that a great number of the gigantic bones which we have mentioned have been seen by anatomists, and have by them been reputed real hu-harden the stone and render it useless. the streets of St. Joseph on his hands Neither should it stand in the water and knees, has been operated on by a An Ohio farmer suggests that the never six inches apart, and vesterday called her a rose. "I am no judge of et to let you pass through.

pany. On this night, for the first time lain found her. He had stopped in hack in this city, where he attracted giving and asking credit a few years the column seemed literally to melt in the water softens so much that entirely recover from his misforune in his life, Arthur Gravely drank to a passing to do an errand. state of helpless stupefaction. He "Mrs. Gravely! What has happen- could not now be purchased at any he can now buy more than he ever flags of the leading regiments go down awoke on the next day feeling and ed? What is wrong? and humiliated. When he met is "Wrong?" she reported, looking a mate. A pair of black ponies of case is mentioned of the French. who ors; they are up again, and wave Granges set themselves about introcompanions in a private parior consting. "O, sir, it is for joy I am cryhected with their sleeping aperting."

Granges set themselves about introducing the rench. who ors; they are up again, and wave ducing the rench. who ors; they are up again, and wave ducing the English sparrow for the basket wagon, with a rumble behind.

The sparrow for the same basket wagon, with a rumble behind.

The sparrow for the sparrow for the same basket wagon, with a rumble behind.

The sparrow for the s ments, he found them with a bow of And then she told him the source is the favorite team of Miss Nellie the First Napoleon, have become the strong hands and willing hearts seize rows breed fast and eat a good deal. hot brandy between them. A spirit of the happiness that had opened to of true friendliness came upon him her.

The horse of mark in the star is the heavy sharpened trees and drag between them. A spirit of the happiness that had opened to ble is Cincinnatus, the old war horse proved by the fact that the German them away and the column forward bring up will consume over them. when he saw the marks of the de- Mr. Vanderlain listened, and after of the President. This animal is a indemnity of a thousand millions of and with a shout which now rings in thousand caterpillars a week.

ing up his business, Mr. Vanderlain that I could find more happiness in lated, and this is the Presidential sta-Shortly after this, in process of clossent Arthur to a distant city to make living now for you!" some important settlement, Arrived Here was a new revelation. Arthur at his destination, the young man Gravely now learned how his sweet dies, with no ornament of any kind filled up by actual settlers the use of arrangements, he found himself with ed at her heart-saw it all the more Magistrate. It would not be a fash- echo what every frontier county will a few days upon his hands which he clearly because he saw in this present ionable coach for a New York snob. say that the thanks of the whole State hardly wider than the clerk's desk might employ in pleasure. On the time her surpassing joy and ecstacy. It would need but little change to for his promptness in making this interest in the clerk's desk very evening of his arrival he had fal-Roberts, two friends an class-mates of noving theme-and as they ate the is the favorite for the President when Omaha Republican. len in with John Hatton and William earlier years. He was startled when neal Arthur told of his trip to the he drives himself. To this is hitched he saw them. They were evidently distant city. going down hill-were drinking to After dinner Arthur went out to speed that came from the State of